Where did it all begin?

We met on a night out almost 11 years ago, before finding out we worked together but had never actually met at work!

We went out to Stone for our first date & the relationship blossomed from there.

Tell us about the proposal!

Thomas proposed on an amazing holiday in Cape Verde.

We had been to a steakhouse for our Saturday night date, before a walk along the beach when he popped the big question.

We'd been together for 7 years so it was long overdue!

We never even looked anywhere else

What was important to you when choosing your venue?

The most important thing for us was that the venue had to suit our personalities - quite a relaxed style of venue. We felt The Boat House was perfect and never looked anywhere else!

What was your favourite feature about The Boat House and why did it make you fall in love with our venue?

The views and floor to ceiling bi-fold doors were our favourite features. We fell in love with the venue straight away - from the fountain outside the entrance to the modern-classy décor inside.

What was your wedding theme?

We didn't have a particular theme, we just kept our décor quite simple as the venue itself provided the perfect backdrop. We stuck to our favourite colour and built our theme from there.

Family was a really important feature for us, with a memory board for our loved ones who couldn't be there and my brother walking me down the aisle.

What would be your top tip to any future couples getting married at The Boat House?

Enjoy every single minute and trust your wedding co-ordinator!

What did you find to be your biggest challenge?

The biggest challenge was trying to stay calm and remembering that no matter how much you plan & organise the day will turn out perfectly. The day flies by so fast that you need to relax and enjoy the process.

Food is serious business at Aston Marina - which dish was a must for you?

We chose canapes, a 3 course wedding breakfast and the chip shop buffet for the evening. It's a difficult choice, but the fishcakes were really delicious. All of our guests complimented the food!
