REAL WEDDINGS

Niamh & Travis

Who popped the big question? Tell us your proposal story!

Before he popped the question, Travis asked Niamh's parent's permission. Niamh's whole family were grinning like Cheshire cats and she thought they had all gone mad!

Travis took Niamh to the Cotswolds for the weekend and got down on one knee in a private garden. They then enjoyed one of the best weekends of their lives travelling around the Cotswolds.

Where did it all begin?

We met at school - our friendship groups merged together and we just started talking even more everyday. We were 16 when we met and we have been together ever since!

What made you fall in love with The Boat House?

It's hard to pick one thing! The view over the marina was amazing and created incredible wedding pictures. Wherever you went you could enjoy the stunning scenery.

What was important to you when it came to choosing the venue for your big day?

We wanted somewhere with lots of natural light and all on one level so that members of our family in wheelchairs could easily get around. We were looking for lots of outdoor space for the kids to run around and the best food!

What was your wedding theme?

We didn't have a specific theme, we just loved the colour emerald green and wanted The Boat House to look like an elegant forest. We mainly just wanted people to relax and have fun.

What was the highlight of your big day?

Marrying each other in front of all of our family & friends and seeing how happy they were for us!

What would be your top tip to any future couples getting married at The Boat House?

Try and book the majority of your suppliers a year or so in advance. We booked the last remaining suppliers the year of our wedding and struggled to find people that had our date free as it was a Saturday in September. We would have felt much more relaxed if we had booked everyone in well in advance and at the same time.

Were there any suppliers you would recommend?

We used Vintage Venue Dressing, Emily Jayne Wedding Photography and Amy Coyne MUA, with Katie's Bride and Dapper Dan providing the dress and suits. They were all absolutely incredible!

What was the biggest challenge you faced when planning your big day?

Organising our families - we created a document and sent it to everyone with timings of day so everyone knew where to be and when.

Food is serious business at Aston Marina - which one dish was a must for your wedding menu?

The afternoon tea!

It was just amazing and with having a massive sweet tooth we adored it - so did the rest of our guests.

Aston Marina were incredible from start to finish - all the staff were exceptional and made us feel so special.

They adapted to all of our requests with ease and we wouldn't change anything about our big day!
